I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless Pilots to the Rescue, and/or its directors, officers, members, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, affiliates and assigns, in the event that Pilots to the Rescue, is subject to legal action as a result of my activities as a shelter/foster. I understand and agree that Pilots to the Rescue, through its volunteers, is solely responsible for determining if the transport cannot be completed due to weather or other factors, and I agree to hold harmless Pilots to the Rescue, for any losses or damages related to such a decision not to complete the transport. I agree that all animals shall be transported in appropriate cages or other holding bins, and that all animals shall be accompanied by the necessary paperwork.

I further agree that the shelter/foster named above is legally able to release the transport animal and all of its documents to Pilots to the Rescue, and the receiving entity. I understand and agree that the volunteer pilot shall have final decision-making authority related to all aspects of the flight, including but not limited to delays and cancellations due to weather, mechanical or other problems. In the event that the animal becomes ill or aggressive during the flight, I agree that the volunteer pilot shall have the discretion to divert the flight to the nearest airport and, if necessary, seek medical attention for the transport animal. If the transport animal becomes too ill or aggressive to continue the flight, then I agree that the volunteer pilot shall have the right to terminate the transport.

I understand that Pilots to the Rescue is a non-profit organization staffed by volunteers, and that it is my responsibility to inform them of any illness or injuries currently suffered by any transport animal. If I fail to notify Pilots to the Rescue, and/or the volunteer pilot prior to transport of an illness or injury, then I agree that I am completely liable for all damages suffered by Pilots to the Rescue, the volunteer pilot, any passengers and/or other transport animals on the aircraft, as well as any damage to the aircraft itself. If the illness or injury necessitates cleaning of the aircraft, then I agree that I am responsible for reimbursing the volunteer pilot and/or Pilots to the Rescue, as appropriate, for any cleaning and/or decontamination costs. In the event that I am aware of an illness or injury to a transport animal, it is my responsibility to ensure that Pilots to the Rescue and the volunteer pilot are fully aware of the illness or injury, medications that the transport animal is taking, the name of the veterinarian responsible for the animal's care, and any special instructions. I understand and agree that I am solely responsible for providing any medications or other supplies needed during the transport of an ill or injured animal.
